For God and Humanity

FOREWORD

In this ANCHOR is contained your memories for the school year 1950-51; your achievements and disappointments, your friends, your work, in short—your college. Where you learned how better to serve God and humanity. Remember this learning and this college and be faithful to both.

DEDICATION

To DR. ROBERT ALLEN DYER, Director of Guidance, for his aid and inspiration to each and everyone of us—we humbly dedicate the 1951 ANCHOR.

The Boiling Springs Baptist Church is a definite part of the college. This tie with the local church gives the student spiritual fellowship which he would otherwise miss while he is away from home. The church and college work together in order to better serve the students and the community.

Students,
This book will mark for you the end of another experience
in your growing up.

Yet all experience is an arch where thro'
gleams that untraveled world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.

I do not know what lies ahead for us, except that whatever there is, lies ahead, and that it is great. There is a sentiment carved on the outside of a great building in the city of Washington, a sentiment I should like to give you as a part of your travel equipment for your journey. It is as follows:

Let all the ends that thou aimst at, be thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's. Be noble, and the nobleness that lies in other men buried,
but never dead will rise in majesty to meet thine own.

Sincerely yours,
Phillip Lovin Elliott

ACTIVITIES

Every member of the student body is a member of the College Government Association. Its executive power is vested in the Student Council. The association is comprised of three main divisions: the Legislative Body, the Judicial Board, and the House Councils. These groups have executive, judicial, and legislative authority over the conduct of the student body.

The purpose of this organization is defined in its constitution: "to afford students an opportunity to learn and observe the rules of community living, to promote responsibility, self-control, and loyalty, to keep all social life on the campus on a high plane, and to have it always in harmony with Christian living."

The B.S.U. serves the campus in many ways. It sets the spiritual tone of the campus. It acts as a link between student and church. It is the center of the spiritual life of the school. The lives of the students and faculty are enriched by attendance at morning watch, vespers, noon-day prayer meeting, and study courses. All of us remember the special meetings this year—the blessings Rev. Fred Forrester brought to us, the inspiration of Family Week with Mrs. Frank Leavell and Rev. Tom Lawrence and the mountain top experience with Miss Mary Herring.

The Marshal Club is the honor society of Gardner-Webb College. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, character and service. Members are selected by the faculty during the second semester and later, in a very impressive "tapping service," they are recognized by the student body as the Marshal Club for the coming year.

The marshals serve at lyceum numbers and at all college functions.

Gamma Omega is the name of the local chapter of the Sigma Phi Alpha Honorary Language Fraternity. It was founded late last year with three charter members. Membership in this fraternity is limited to those who have a high scholastic average in one of the modern foreign languages plus a strong interest in foreign peoples and a wish to better inter-language group relations. New members are chosen by the old members on the basis of the requirements stated above.

The watch words of the Fraternity are STRENGTH, PERMANENCY, and ACCOMPLISHMENT. The first two being prerequisites for the third.

The Christian Volunteer Band

BOB MULLINAX President—First Semester

MAX LINNENS President—Second Semester

The membership of the Christian Volunteer Band is composed of students who are dedicating their lives for full-time Christian work—ministers, missionaries, musicians, directors of religious education, and others. The Band meets once each week to sing, pray, and worship together. At each meeting a practical program is presented, usually by an authority on some phase of Christian service. In addition to the members who are pastors of churches, each member of the Band is engaged in Christian work, either on the campus or in neighboring communities.

TRIUMPHS AND TROUBLES

GARDNER-WEBB 0—APPALACHIAN JAYVEES 6

The Bulldogs opened the '50 campaign in Marion Sept. 23 with the Appalachian Jayvees furnishing the opposition. The Apps, after having a second quarter touchdown called back, scored a beautiful 30-yard pass play in the third stanza to rack up a 6-0 victory. G-W drove to the visitor's 30 in the third, but couldn't penetrate any farther.

GARDNER-WEBB 21—NORTH GREENVILLE 19

The Bradburnmen returned home Sept. 30 to battle the North Greenville Black Widow. Both clubs pushed over markers in the first quarter but the Sandlappers scored twice in the second taking a 19-14 lead at halftime. Gardner-Webb, however, rallied in the third chapter to ease by the Greenies 21-19. Ed Jones' two extra points were the margin of victory.

GARDNER-WEBB 7—GORDON MILITARY 32

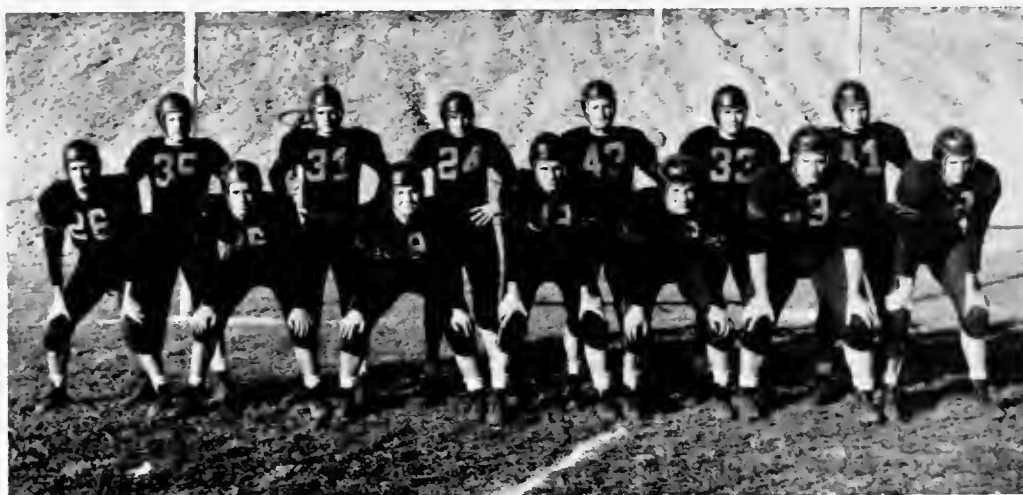

The Gardner-Webbers journeyed to Georgia Oct. 7 and were beaten by Gordon Military Institute, one of the strongest clubs in the South, 32-7. Gordon tallied once each in the first, third, and fourth quarters and twice in the second, while G-W averted a shutout with a third period tally.

GARDNER-WEBB 32—MARS HILL 13

The Bulldog eleven took to the hills Oct. 14 and came back with their second loop win, a 32-13 decision over Mars Hill. In beating their brother Baptists, the Bulldogs, after an even first half, pulled away in the last half to gain the verdict.

GARDNER-WEBB 54—P. J. C. 0

The Cherryville and Kings Mountain High bands helped Gardner-Webb celebrate its annual homecoming Oct. 21. The highlight of the day's festivities was Gardner-Webb's smashing 54-0 triumph over the Presbyterian Scotties. Julius Pinkston, who won honorable mention to the little Junior College all-American outfit, scored two touchdowns.

Offensive Team

Julius Pinkston, end; Joe Cole, tackle; Hugh Miller, guard; Bob Mauney, center; Terry Jones, guard; Ed Jones, tackle; John Pierce, end.

Backs: Bobby Bush, Bob Smith, James Sullivan, Sam Travis, Al Homesley, Jack Holt.

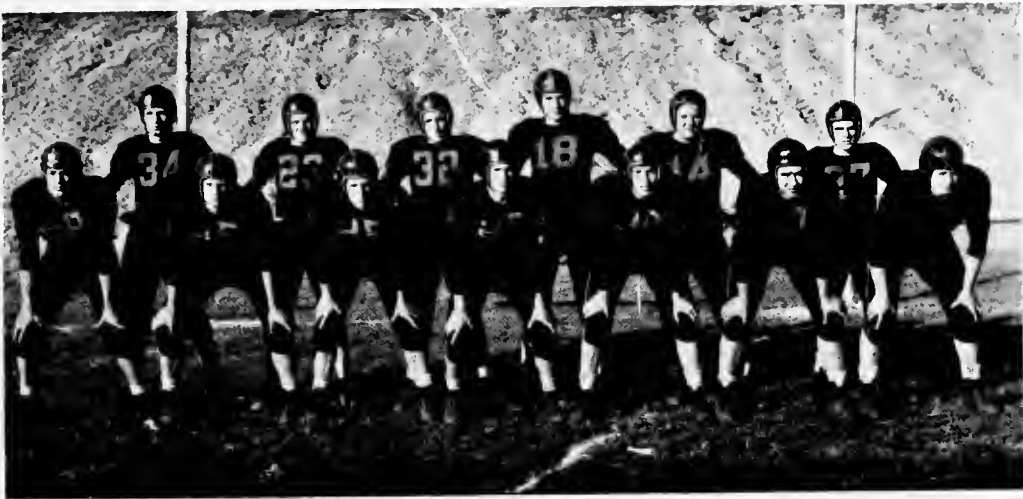

ON THE

GARDNER-WEBB 39—BREVARD 0

Halfback Bush and Fullback Sam Travis ran wild in Brevard the following week as the local eleven rolled over the hapless Tornadoes 39-0. G-W was ahead only 13-0 at halftime, but the Boiling Springers really rolled in the second half to register their second successive white-wash job.

GARDNER-WEBB 0—LEES-McRAE 19

Nov. 4 was the day of decision as far as the Carolinas Junior College Conference was concerned, as G-W met Lees-McRae at Banner Elk in the championship battle. Both clubs entered the game with 4-0 records. After a scoreless first half, the Bobby Peters-led Bobcats slogged through the mud, rain, sleet, and snow to tally three times in the second half to take their fourth championship in as many seasons.

Rudy Wardell, end; Bill Morehead, tackle; Charles Howell, guard; Allen Laurence, center; Ray Carnes, guard; Roger Wright, tackle; Ben Wall, end.

Defensive Team

Backs, Bill Pucket Delvin Huffstetler, Milton Noblitt, Gene Washburn, Bill Toney, Bobby Nix.

GRIDIRON

GARDNER-WEBB 12—CAMPBELL 7

In bitter cold weather, the Gardner-Webb team came from behind to push over a fourth quarter touchdown to gain a 12-7 verdict over a fourth quarter touchdown to gain a 12-7 verdict over the Camels of Campbell College. The contest, played at Buies Creek, saw the Camel club holding a 7-6 halftime advantage.

GARDNER-WEBB 15—WESTERN CAROLINA B 0

A field goal by truetoe Ed Jones and a couple of touchdowns gave the local outfit a 15-0 victory over the Western Carolina Jayvee team. The Kitty-mounts were completely baffled after being stopped on the G-W 25-yard stripe in the opening minutes of the game.

ON THE

The 1950-51 Bulldog basketballers won eleven of sixteen Carolinas Junior College Conference starts to place second behind Lees-McRae. The Gardner-Webbers scored 1576 points in 24 games for an average of 66 points per game. The Bradburnmen copped fifteen of twenty-three seasonal starts. Forward Tommy Barrow topped the scorers with 224 points on 113 field goals and 52 free throws. J. C. Trammell, Al Homesley, and Bob Bush were close behind in the point-making derby with 219, 218, and 148 respectively. Bush, the Summerville, Ga. lad, appeared in only fifteen contests. Guard Banks Miller and sub center Bob Blackburn were the club's defense standouts.

February 22, the Bulldog five entered the state tournament played at the Shelby Community Center. They left the floor at intermission with a 32-26 edge, but bowed to the Pfeiffer Panthers 53-49 as the powerful Eastern club turned on the steam in the final five minutes.

Coach Norman Harris, Bobby Bush, Jack Trammell, Al Homesley, Charles Morton, Bill Stout, Cecil Rollins, Coach Wayne Bradburn.

BASEBALL

NORMAN HARRIS

Coach

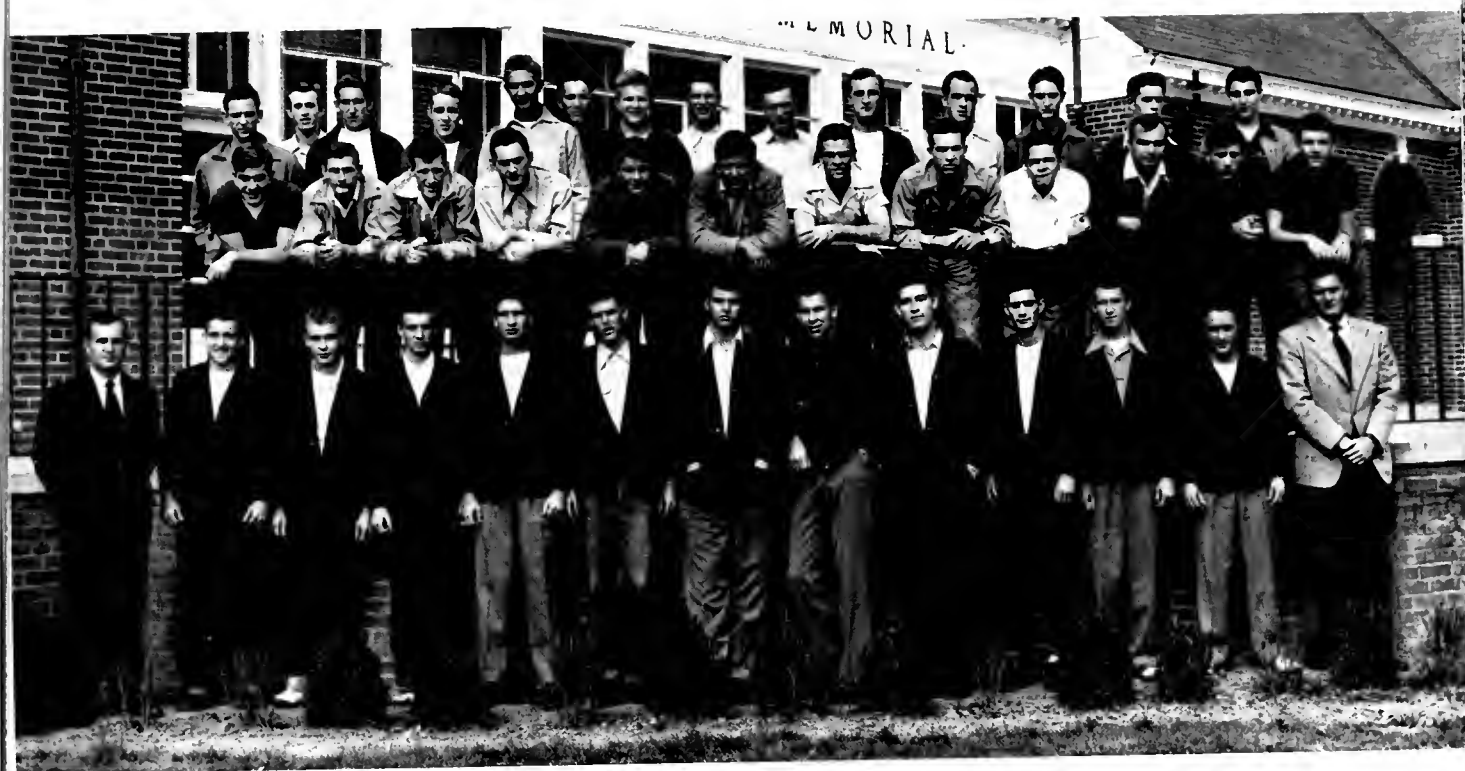

With Coach Norman Harris at the helm, Gardner-Webb's Bull-Dogs won nine and lost four during the 1950 season to ease by the Spartanburg Pioneers for the Western Division crown. With Al Homesley, Whitey Cline, Andy Sealy, James Moon, Tom Barrow, and Tom Newton rattlin' the fences with doubles and triples, Homesley and Walter Oakes running wild on the base paths, and Blaine Froneberger, Joe Anthony, Frank Wilson, and Charles Morton forming one of the best mound staffs in Junior College baseball, the Bulldogs edged the South Carolina nine by 14 points.

Some of the highlights of the season were: Froneberger returning to his home town, Cherryville, to turn back Belmont Abbey 4-2 on five hits after the Crusaders had shut out the G-W crew earlier in the season. Oakes stealing home in the eighth frame to cap an uphill struggle as the locals downed Mitchell 9-8. Morton limiting Mars Hill to two hits as the G-Webbers defeated the Lions 7-0. Morton faced only 29 men.
